INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work 1825 Achilles Wright Of Oldham County, Kentucky is Part XVII of the project.

The material for this project is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second is the descendants charts, the third is the sources, and the fourth is a set of appendices.

The text provides full and literal transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Five generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or with a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list.

The source list provides first a chronological listing of sources as they were found or consulted and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices have been published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Botetourt, Campbell, Cumberland, Essex, Franklin, Montgomery, Nelson, Prince Edward, Roanoke, and Rockbridge Counties, Virginia, the City of Lynchburg and the City of Roanoke, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future.

The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed. This is to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and to provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County" indicates that this was the Augustine Wright who died in 1776 in Amherst County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky". A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 100,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, flashsticks, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize those fellow researchers by identifying their contributions in the text and source list. The quotations from published works are made with the permission of the author.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

XVII. 1825 Achilles Wright Of Oldham County, Kentucky, His Wife Nancy ( ) Wright, And His Descendants

The parents of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, have not as yet been identified, but it seems probable that his brothers were 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, and 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, based on the following evidence.

On July 1, 1765, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. B/27 Killis Wright purchased from Menos Wright 100 acres of land on the north side of Tye River. Sometime before September 3, 1770, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. C/104 Killes Wright and Menos Wright acted as witnesses to a deed from Augustine Wright and Alice Wright to Thomas Wilsher. In Amherst County, Virginia, Deed F/168 dated June 4, 1787, Robert and Keziah Wright conveyed to Samuel Edmunds the land formerly owned by Augustine Wright and the land of Menos Wright was described as adjoining that land. The land of Augustine Wright is similarly described in the complaint in Lynchburg Superior Court of Law and Chancery File 1486 as adjacent to the "Lands belonging to the Estate of Menos Wright." In the deposition of Achilles Wright dated December 1, 1817, at his home in Henry County, Kentucky, he stated that he was named executor of the will of Augustine Wright. In addition, Achilles Wright stated that Parmenas Wright was present at the signing of the will. Similarly, in the deposition of Alcy Edmunds on December 26, 1817, she stated that Parmenas Wright was present at the writing of the will. In the deposition of Moses Hughes dated June 19, 1819, he stated that "Acchilles Wright" and Permenus Wright were witnesses to the will of Augustine Wright and that Parmenas Wright applied to administer the estate of Augustine Wright, but that administration was granted to the widow Alcey Wright. Administration of an intestate would normally be granted to a relative. The will of Joseph Mays dated January 7, 1798, listed sons Jesse, Moses, and Louis Mays and, as set forth below, Louis/Lewis Mays married Lucy Wright, daughter of Achilles Wright, and in addition, Jesse Mays married Susannah Wright, daughter of Augustine Wright, and Moses Mays married Lucy Wright, daughter of Parmenos Wright.

The associations among Achilles Wright, Augustine Wright, and Parmenos Wright and the common classical given names strongly suggest a common relationship and probably a parent who liked classical names, but further research will be required to confirm this.

This family may have come from Buckingham County, Virginia. Minos Wright was listed as a member of the Company of Minute Men under Captain Nicholas Cabell from November 17, 1775, through December 6, 1775, in Buckingham District. Buckingham County is a burned record county and so if this family was from Buckingham County, documentation of the parents of Achilles Wright, Augustine Wright, and Parmenos Wright may be difficult to find.

1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, is the subject of Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XV, and 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, is the subject of Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XVI.

Y-DNA sequencing has also been pursued to identify the parents of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky. Paul G. Wright is a descendant of 1825 Achilles Wright and as set forth below and in the descendants chart, his line of descent is as follows:

1st Generation:	1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky,
2nd Generation:	James Wright of Kentucky,
3rd Generation:	George Wright,
4th Generation:	Newton Wright,
5th Generation:	1961 Carl Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky,
6th Generation:	1985 Wallace G. Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky, and
7th Generation:	2012 Norris Allen Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky.

Paul G. Wright has participated in the Wright DNA Project, his Kit is #857305, and his Y-DNA sequence is as follows:

Paul's sequencing indicates that he is in Haplogroup R-M269, Group 4, on the Wright DNA Project Chart of Results found at: https://www.familytreedna.com/public/Wright?iframe=yresults.

These results mean that 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, had an as yet unidentified common Wright ancestor with the others in that Group 4, which includes the following Wright lines:

1) Robert Wright, Sr., (Campbell County, Virginia), the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part V, available online for downloading at: https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/1246610?availability=Family%20History%20Library,

2) William Wright (Amherst County, Virginia), the material on whom is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part VIII, available online for downloading at: https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/1787439?availability=Family%20History%

20Library,

3) Jesse Wright (Amherst County, Virginia), the material on whom is in still in draft form and available from the author,

4) 1791 John Wright of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, the material on whom is in still in draft form and available from the author,

5) probably 1776 Augustine Wright of Amherst County, Virginia, the material on whom, as mentioned above, is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XV, available online for downloading at: https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/2807583?availability=Family%20History%20Library, and

6) probably 1814 Parmenos Wright of Nelson County, Virginia, the material on whom, as mentioned above, is set forth in Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia, Part XVI, available online for downloading at: https://www.familysearch.org/search/catalog/2807585?availability=Family%20History%20Library.

Although these results mean that further research and Y-DNA testing will be required to identify the parents of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, the large number of separate families with a common Wright ancestor bodes well for the success of that research.

The remainder of this work will set forth the documentation that has been found relating to Achilles Wright, his wife Nancy (____) Wright, and their descendants.

On July 1, 1765, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. B/27 Killis Wright of Amherst County purchased from Menos Wright 100 acres of land on the north side of Tye River:

If Achilles Wright was at least 18 years of age when he purchased this property, then his date of birth was probably before 1748.

Sometime before September 3, 1770, at Amherst County, Virginia, D.B. C/104 Killes Wright and Menos Wright acted as witnesses to a deed from Augustine Wright and Alice Wright to Thomas Wilsher.

This record indicates that George Wright was born before May 10, 1773. Although there is no specific identification in this record of this George Wright as the son of Achilles Wright, since there were no other known George Wrights in Amherst County at this time, except for the son of Achilles, the identification seems fair.

George Wright has not as yet been located in the 1810 Census. As set forth below, George Wright resided in 1810 in Greene County, Tennessee, and the 1810 Census for that county has been lost. However, Tennessee, Compiled Census and Census Substitutes Index, 1810-1891, available from Ancestry.com, listed a George Right in Greene County, Tennessee, in 1812 and this listing was probably for George Wright, the son of 1825 Achilles Wright.

On December 15, 1823, Oldham County, Kentucky, was formed in part from Henry County, Kentucky.

The will of Achilles Wright dated January 17, 1824, and probated in September 1825 at Oldham County, Kentucky, W.B. 1/34 listed George Wright as one of his children:

James, my desire is that these assets shall be taken account of and considered as part of my estate and each receive his portion accordingly. . . ."

On December 4, 1833, at Pension File S 31501 George Wright filed his application for a pension by reason of his service in the Revolutionary War:

"State of Kentucky)
Oldham County) Ct

Be it known that on this 4th day of December 1833 personally appeared before Wm Gatewood a Justice of the peace in and for Oldham County in the State of Kentucky and one of the Judges of the County Court of said County George Wright a resident of the said County of Oldham Kentucky aged 70 years And upward who being first duly sworn according to law doth upon his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress papers June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated - that is to say being a resident of Amherst County in the State of Virginia he did in the month of October in the year 1779 as well as he at this time remembers enter the service of the United States as a drafted Militia Man and private soldier in the Company of Capt Banks upon a tour of two months - that he rendezvoused with his Company at Amherst Courthouse and was marched from thence to the Albemarle Barracks where he was Kept stationed during the whole of his said tour in guarding prision and public Stores and at the termination of his said tour he had fully and faithfully served out the Same he was discharged and returned home - He states that while he was at the Barracks as above named he recollects that there were some other troops there under the Command of Captain Burley that he understood were regular soldiers and from his present best impression Captain Burley had the command of the Garrison at that place and that there was no field officer there except Frances Taylor

He further states and declares that in the month of February 1780 as well as he remembers he again entered the service of the United States as a drafted Militia Man and private soldier in the Company of Captain Banks upon another tour of two months that he rendezvoused with his Company at the Courthouse in Amherst County in which County he still resided and was marched by his Captain to Albemarle Barracks, the same place at which he was stationed in his preceding tour - that he was there kept as a part of the Garrison of that place and as a part of the guard for the British prisoners and for the public stores at that place till the full expiration of this his second tour and at the termination thereof after having fully & faithfully served out the same he was discharged & returned home - He states that he recollects that Capt Burrell was still at the said Barracks and he understood was in the regular service and had the Command at that place.

He further States and declares that in the month of December in the year 1780 as well as he remembers he again entered the service of the United States as a drafted Militia man and private soldier in the Company of Captain Ballinger upon a tour of three months - that a man by the name of Pollard was the lieutenant of the company and that he rendezvoused with his said Company at the Muster ground in Amherst County where he this declarent still resided and he was marched from thence by his said Captain to Richmond Va and from thence to Hoods fort on James River where he was kept as a part of the Garrison of that place till the full expiration of his said tour of duty and for one month longer comprising a period of four months actual and active service upon this tour instead of three months service for which he was originaly drafted and he was there discharged and returned home He states that during this service he was under the command of no higher officer than Captain.

He further States and declares that in the month of June in the year 1781 as well as he remembers he again entered the service of the United States as a drafted militia man and private soldier upon a tour of twenty days (the draft being called the twenty days draft) in the Company of Captain Rees - that he rendezvoused with his Company at the Courthouse in Amherst County and was there attached to the regiment of Col Meriweather and to the Brigade of Genl. Lawson - that he was marched with the other troops and joined the Army of Genl La Fayette near Williamsburg Va. - that the British under Cornwallis had retreated to the lower parts of Virginia and after he joined Genl La Fayette he was marched with the Army to the Morban or Moblin Hills where he remained till he had been in the service about one month perhaps a few days over and he was then discharged and returned home. He states that he is positive in his recollection that he served at the least one month during this tour - And he recollects to have seen Col. Caball & Col. Mathews beside his own Col. and he recollects also Genl La Fayette Wayne and Stueban & Lawson - He does not recollect the names of any of the regular Colos.

He states that from the great lapse of time and his advanced age his memory has greatly failed him - but that he is confident from his present best recollection that he did not serve in the war of the revolution less than nine months as a private Militia soldier in the Manner above stated and for that service he claims a pension

He states that he has no documentary evidence and that he Knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of the agency of any State

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter relative to George Wright, a soldier of the Revolutionary War, "who was a resident of Trimble County, Kentucky, at the time he applied for his pension".

The record of George Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, in 1834, follows as found in pension claim, S.31501, based upon his military service in that war.

George Wright was born in Amherst County, Virginia, in 1763, day, month and the names of his parents are not shown.

While a resident of Amherst County, Virginia, George Wright enlisted in October 1779, and served two months as private in Captain Banks' and Burnley's Virginia Companies. He enlisted in February 1780, and served two months as private in Captains Banks' and Burnley's Virginia Companies. He enlisted in December 1780 and served four months as private in Captain Ballinger's Virginia Company. He enlisted in June 1781 and served more than one month as private in Captain Rees' Company, Colonel Merriwether's Virginia Regiment.

About 1806 he moved from Amherst County, Virginia, to Greene County, Tennessee, and about ten years later he moved to Henry County, that part which was later called Oldham County, Kentucky.

He was allowed pension on his application executed December 4, 1833, at which time he was a resident of Oldham County, Kentucky.

There are no family data.

The residence of this George Wright in 1840 is not shown. He may have been identical with the one who was recorded in 1840 as of Trimble County.

Very truly yours

1) Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, born about 1810 in Amherst County, Virginia,

2) Matilda (Wright) Hicks,

Trimble County, Kentucky, Court Order Book One, Volumes 1 & 2 stated that on August 7, 1842, Wesley J. Wright was commissioned as a justice of the peace of Trimble County, Kentucky, and that on September 12, 1842, he presented his commission to court:

> "At a county court began and held at the court house in the Town of Bedford on Monday the 12th day of September 1842. Present John Sibley Jack Pryor Benjamin H Logan, John F Butler Daniel S Lane court order was filed:

> "Satisfactory proof was this day made in open court by the oths of Archibald Bain and Frances E Skidmore credible witnesses and known to the court that George Wright late a pensioner of the United States departed this life on the 30th June 1845 and that the said George Wright was the identical person named in an original certificate now here shown to the Court bearing date the 5th February one thousand eight hundred and thirty four and signed by Lew Cass Secretary of war granting to the said George Wright a pension of Thirty Dollars and numbered 25567 and it was further proven that the said George Wright died leaving no widow and that Wesley J Wright Ellis G Wright and Louraney Wright are the only children of said George Wright dec'd"

Trimble County, Kentucky, Births, 1852-1855, compiled by Barb Ziegenmeyer listed the birth of Ben, a son of Wesley J. Wright, on March 18, 1853, at Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Name	Birth Date	Gender	Father's Name
Ben	18 Mar 1853	Male	Wesley J Wright

Mother's Name

As set forth above, Hannah (Gibson) (Bell) Wright was about 60 years old in 1853 and it would be improbable that she was the mother of Ben. The absence of a last name or the name of a mother indicates that Ben was a slave. The listing of Wesley J. Wright as father may have been intended to reflect that he was the owner. However, the listing of the youngest female slave in the 1850 Slave Schedule as mulatto indicates that she had a white parent, which in turn suggests that Wesley J. Wright may have been the father of Ben and the mother of Ben was one of Wesley J. Wright's female slaves.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Births, 1852-1855, compiled by Barb Ziegenmeyer listed the birth of ____, a daughter of Wesley J. Wright, on April 16, 1854, at Trimble County, Kentucky:

Wesley J. Wright

In her letter dated September 21, 1991 Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Wesley J. Wright was a son of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright and was born in about 1792.

a. Possibly Ben Wright

Ben Wright was possibly a son of Wesley J. Wright and ____ ____. (1825 Achilles[1], George[2], Wesley J.[3])

Trimble County, Kentucky, Births, 1852-1855, compiled by Barb Ziegenmeyer listed the birth of Ben, a son of Wesley J. Wright, on March 18, 1853, at Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Name	Birth Date	Gender	Father's Name
Ben	18 Mar 1853	Male	Wesley J Wright

As set forth above, Hannah (Gibson) (Bell) Wright was about 60 years old in 1853 and it would be improbable that she was the mother of Ben. The absence of a last name or the name of a mother indicates that Ben was a slave. The listing of Wesley J. Wright as father may have been intended to reflect that he was the owner. However, the listing of the youngest female slave in the 1850 Slave Schedule as mulatto indicates that she had a white parent, which in turn suggests that Wesley J. Wright may have been the father of Ben and the mother was one of Wesley J. Wright's female slaves.

b. Possibly Wright

Wilson L. Wright has not as yet been located in the 1840 Census and was not listed in either Trimble County, Kentucky, or Oldham County, Kentucky.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Will Book I, 1837-1875, compiled by Donna Stark Thompson, stated that the will of Lewis Bain was dated on April 1, 1842, probated in June 1842 at Trimble County, Kentucky, W.B. 1/_, and listed Dorothy Wright as his deceased daughter and her son as Byron G. Wright:

"Bain, Lewis: 1 April 1842: Probate June 1842: Will.
daughter Dorothy Wright, deceased, her child Byron G. Wright.

This record indicates that Byron G. Wright was born in about 1831. The absence of Miranda (Cook) Wright from the household indicates that she had probably died before March 1, 1885. Although both Byron G. Wright and Sally Wright were listed as married, this was probably an error of the census taker treating them as if they were husband and wife rather than father and child.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Byron G. Wright was a son of Wilson W. Wright and Dorothy (Bain) Wright, married Virginia Cook, and moved in 1880 to Kansas, and that Virginia (Cook) Wright was born in 1832 and died in 1879.

5. Matilda (Wright) Hicks, Her Husband John H. Hicks, And Her Descendants

Matilda (Wright) Hicks was a daughter of 1845 George Wright of Trimble County and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright. (1825 Achilles[1], 1845 George[2])

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850 listed the marriage of Matilda Wright and John H. Hicks on September 29, 1823, at Henry County, Kentucky:

"Name: John H. Hicks
Marriage Date: 29 Sep 1823
Marriage Place: Henry, Kentucky, USA

Spouse: Matilda Wright"

The death record of George W. Hicks dated on July 5, 1857, in Trimble County, Kentucky, listed his parents as John and Matilda Hicks and his age as 28 years and born in Trimble County, Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1829.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that the will of Wesley J. Wright identified Josephine Hix as his niece:

> "I, Wesley J. Wright, of Bedford, Trimble County, Ky., ... do make and publish this my last will & testament. . . . . Item 5; I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford adjoining my stable lot for her use forever. . . . . In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 6th day of July, 1873.
> Signed in the presence of us W. F. Peak, J. W. Greenwood." Wesley J. Wright

Trimble County, Kentucky, Will Book I, 1837-1875 stated that the will of Wesley J. Wright dated on July 6, 1873, and probated on July 17, 1873, listed Josephine Hix as his niece:

> "Wright, Wesley J.: 6 July 1873: Probate July 17, 1873: Will. . . . . I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford, adjoining my stable lot for her use and benefit forever. . . . ."

These last two records identify Josephine Hicks as a daughter of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks.

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed George W. Hicks in the Henry Kile household on October 16, 1850, and the 1850 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, listed Josephine Hicks in the Robert Kyle household on August 13, 1850. The presence of both children of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks in the households of relatives indicates that Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks had died before August 13, 1850.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Matilda Wright was a daughter of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Matilda Wright was a daughter of George Wright and Elizabeth (Landrum) Wright, married John H. Hicks on September 29, 1833, at Henry County, Kentucky, and that Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks had the following child:

1) Josephine Hicks, born in about 1840.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks were the following:

1) George W. Hicks, born in about 1829 in Trimble County, Kentucky, and

2) Josephine (Hicks) Richmond, born in about 1835 or 1836 or 1840 in Kentucky.

a. George W. Hicks

George W. Hicks was a son of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks. (1825 Achilles[1], 1845 George[2], Matilda[3])

The 1850 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed George W. Hicks in the Henry Kile household on October 16, 1850, his age as 21 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1829, and his occupation as laborer.

The death record of George W. Hicks, son of John and Matilda Hicks, was dated on July 5, 1857, in Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Name of Deceased.	George W Hicks

b. Josephine (Hicks) Richmond, Her Husband David Richmond, And Her Descendants

Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was a daughter of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks. (1825 Achilles[1], 1845 George[2], Matilda[3])

The 1850 Census for Jefferson County, Indiana, listed Josephine Hicks in the Robert Kyle household on August 13, 1850, and her age as 15 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1835.

Josephine Hicks has not as yet been located in the 1860 Census.

The 1870 Census for Trimble County, Virginia, listed Josephine Hicks and David Richmond in the John Richmond household on July 2, 1870:

This record indicates that Josephine Hicks was born in about 1840. The listing of Josephine as Hicks and the separate listing of David Richmond indicates that they had not married before July 2, 1870.

The will of Wesley J. Wright dated on July 6, 1873, and probated on July 17, 1873, at Trimble County, W.B. 1/223, listed Josephine Hix as his niece:

> "I Wesley J Wright of Bedford Trimble County Ky . . . . do make and publish this my last will and testament
> . . . .
> Item 5 I will and bequeath to my niece Josephine Hix four town lots on the East Side of Bedford adjoining my stable lot for her use and benefit forever
> . . . ."

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Wesley J. Wright died in 1873 at Trimble County, Kentucky, and that the will of Wesley J. Wright provided as follows:

> "I, Wesley J. Wright, of Bedford, Trimble County, Ky., ... do make and publish this my last will & testament. . . . . Item 5; I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford adjoining my stable lot for her use forever. . . . . In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 6th day of July, 1873.
> Signed in the presence of us W. F. Peak, J. W. Greenwood." — Wesley J. Wright

This record identifies Joseph Hix as a niece of Wesley J. Wright.

Trimble County, Kentucky, Will Book I, 1837-1875 stated that the will of Wesley

J. Wright was dated on July 6, 1873, and probated on July 17, 1873, and listed Josephine Hix as his niece:

> "Wright, Wesley J.: 6 July 1873: Probate July 17, 1873: Will. . . . . I will and bequeath to my neice Josephine Hix four town lots on the east side of Bedford, adjoining my stable lot for her use and benefit forever. . . . ."

These two records indicate that Josephine Hicks and David Richmond had probably not married by July 6, 1873.

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed David Richmon with the following household on June 22, 1880:

This record indicates that Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was born in about 1836 and that David Richmond was born in about 1835 and that they married before June 22, 1880.

The death record of Susie Hackney dated September 30, 1894, in Trimble County, Kentucky, listed her as the daughter of David Richmond and Josie Richmond and born in about 1869 in Trimble County, Kentucky. However, the 1870 Census listed Susie Richmond in the John Richmond household, and her age as 12, indicating a date of birth in about 1868. That census also listed David Richmond and Josephine Hicks separately, indicating that they had not yet married. And the will of Wesley J. Wright dated July 6, 1873, listed Joseph as Hix, indicating that she had not yet married. The result is that Susan (Richmond) Hackney was a step daughter of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and not her biological daughter and the informant for the death record gave the clerk incorrect information.

The 1900 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed David Richmond with the following household on June 9, 1900:

This record indicates that David Richmond was born in about 1835.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed the following obituary for David Richmond:

> "Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died before 1900, their children, Susan, Elizabeth, Robert N., Richard D. and Alice.)"

The will of David Richmond was dated on July 15, 1918, probated on January 27, 1919, at Trimble County, Kentucky, W.B. 2/316, and provided as follows:

"I, David Richmond, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and recognizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others by me heretofore at any time made.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Josephine Hicks was a daughter of Matilda (Wright) Hicks and John H. Hicks and was born in about 1840.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond were the following:

1) possibly Susan "Susie" Richmond, born in about 1868 in Kentucky,

2) possibly Elizabeth "Bettie" Richmond, born in about 1870 in Kentucky,

3) Robert or Richard Richmond, born on October 26, 1872, or October 27, 1873, or in about 1874 in Kentucky, and

4) Alice (Richmond) Davis, born in about 1879 in Kentucky.

i. Possibly Susan "Susie" Richmond

Susan "Susie" Richmond was possibly a daughter of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond. (1825 Achilles[1], 1845 George[2], Matilda[3], Josephine[4])

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Susie Richmon in the David Richmon household on June 22, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 12 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1868. However, since Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was listed in that census record as Josephine Hicks, this Susan Richmond may have been a child of David Richmond by a prior marriage.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed Susan Richmond as a daughter of David Richmond in the following obituary:

"Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died before 1900, their children, Susan, Elizabeth, Robert N., Richard D. and Alice.)"

ii. Possibly Elizabeth "Bettie" Richmond

Elizabeth "Bettie" Richmond was possibly a daughter of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond. (1825 Achilles[1], 1845 George[2], Matilda[3], Josephine[4])

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Bettie Richmon in the David Richmon household on June 22, 1880, her relationship as daughter, and her age as 10 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1870. However, since Josephine (Hicks) Richmond was listed in that census record as Josephine Hicks, this Susan Richmond may have been a child of David Richmond by a prior marriage.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed Elizabeth Richmond as a daughter of David Richmond in the following obituary:

> "Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died before 1900, their children, Susan, Elizabeth, Robert N., Richard D. and Alice.)"

iii. Robert Or Richard Daniel Richmond And His Wife Mary Ethel ( ) Richmond

Robert or Richard Daniel Richmond was a son of Josephine (Hicks) Richmond and David Richmond. (1825 Achilles[1], 1845 George[2], Matilda[3], Josephine[4])

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Robert Richmon in the David Richmon household on June 22, 1880, his relationship as son, and his age as 6 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1874.

The 1900 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Robert __. Richmond in the David Richmond with the following household on June 9, 1900, his relationship as son, his birth in October 1872, his marital status as single, and his occupation as farm laborer.

The 1910 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Richard Richmond in the David Richmond household on April 21, 1910:

This record indicates that Robert or Richard Daniel Richmond was born in about 1875 and that Ethel (____) Richmond was born in about 1879 and that they were married in about 1901. In addition, it appears that sometime between 1900 and 1910 Robert Richmond decided to go by the name Richard rather than Robert.

Excerpts Of Obituaries From Trimble County, KY, before 1928, by The Trimble County Historical Society, listed Richard D. Richmond as a son of David Richmond in the following obituary:

> "Richmond, David, 87, died Saturday ca 1918. Burial Perkinson burying ground on Poplar Ridge. "Uncle David" served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was the last surviving member. (Wife, Josephine Hicks Richmond died

Although the obituary listed Robert N. Richmond as a son of David Richmond, the other records for Richard Daniel Richmond indicate that he may have been mis-listed as Robert Richmond in the 1880 Census and, therefore, there may have been no son Robert N. Richmond.

The will of David Richmond dated on July 15, 1918, and probated on January 27, 1919, at Trimble County, Kentucky, W.B. 2/316, listed R. D. Richmond as his son:

> "I, David Richmond,. . . . do hereby make and publish this to be my last Will and Testament

In his letter dated May 21, 2004, Leonard E. Wright stated that Rezin Wright was a son of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright, but did not have documentation to confirm this identification. Leonard E. Wright further stated that Rezin Wright was born between 1780 and 1790 in Amherst County, Virginia, married Nancy Kindall, resided in 1830 in Gallatin County, Kentucky, resided in 1840 to 1843 in Carroll County, Kentucky, and died before December 15, 1843, in Carroll County, Kentucky, that Nancy (Kindall) Wright was born in 1794 and died on December 1, 1854, and that Rezin Wright and Nancy (Kindall) Wright had the following children:

1. Possibly Achilles Wright

Achilles Wright was possibly a son of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. (1825 Achilles[1], Samuel[2])

No documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies Achilles Wright as a son of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. However, the similarity of his given name and his grandfather's given name makes this a possible identification.

The 1840 Census for McCracken County, Kentucky, listed Achiles Wright with the following household:

3. Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, Her Husband William Jackson, and Her Descendants

Rhoda (Wright) Jackson was a daughter of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright. (1825 Achilles[1], Samuel[2])

Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Rhoda Wright and William Jackson on February 2, 1819, at Warren County, Kentucky:

"Name:	William Jackson
Marriage Date:	2 Feb 1819
Marriage Place:	Warren, Kentucky, USA
Spouse:	Rhoda Wright"

The 1820 Census for Warren County, Kentucky, listed one William Jackson with the following household:

2	14-26

Since Samuel Wright first married in 1791, the male aged 16 to 26 would be William Jackson, Jr., and the female aged 16 to 26 would be his wife Rhoda (Wright) Jackson. This record indicates that Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson were born between 1795 and 1804.

In her email dated January 29, 2017, Betty Ravenholt enclosed a family report which stated that on February 15, 1827, at Henry County, Tennessee, D.B. B/243 William H. Jackson of Henry County purchased from Samuel Hewlet 20 acres of land on the waters of Holly Fork of Sandy River:

> "This Indenture made and entered into this the 15th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and twenty Seven Between Samuel Hewlet of the County of Henry and State of Tennessee of the one part and William H Jackson of the County and State aforesaid Witnesseth that the Said Samuel Hewlet for and in the consideration of the Sum of Eighty dollars . . . . conveyd unto the Said William H Jackson twenty Acres of land Situated lying and being in the County of Henry and State aforesaid on the Waters of the Holly fork of Sandy in the fifth range and Eighth Section and twelfth District Entered in the name of the Said Samuel Hewlet . . . . > Samuel X Hewlet [his mark]"

In her family report Betty Ravenholt also stated that the 1827 Tax List for Henry County, Tennessee, listed William H. Jackson with 20 acres of land and 1 free poll.

In her family report Betty Ravenholt also stated that on March 3, 1828, at Henry County, Tennessee, County Court Minute Book 3/516 William H. Jackson acted as surety on an administration bond filed by John N. Jackson and Nancy Hudspeth:

> "On motion it is ordered by the Court that letters of administration of all and singular the goods & chattels rights & credits of John Hudspeth be granted to John N Jackson & Nancy Hudspeth who entered into bond of $200 with Wm Jackson Senr & Wm H Jackson as Securities and was sworn according to law".

The 1830 Census for Warren County, Kentucky, did not list a William Jackson.

The 1830 Census for Henry County, Tennessee, listed two William Jacksons, one of whom was William Jackson, Sr., age 70 to 80, and immediately below him William Jackson with what appears to be the designation "Junr" after his name and with the following household:

Names Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age

This record indicates that Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson were born between 1790 and 1800 and in conjunction with the 1820 Census, between 1795 and 1800. The second oldest male in the household would be too old to be born to William and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, but might have been a sibling.

In her email dated January 29, 2017, Betty Ravenholt enclosed a family report which stated that the Henry County, Tennessee, Tax Lists for 1832, 1833, and 1835 listed William H. Jackson with 40 acres of land and 1 free poll.

In her family report Betty Ravenholt also stated that on May 9, 1835, at Henry County, Tennessee, D.B. E/295 William H. Jackson of Henry County sold to Richard Lee the 20 acres of land purchased in 1827 by Henry County, Tennessee, Deed B/243:

> "This Indenture made and entered into this the 9 day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five between William H Jackson of the County Henry and State Tennessee of the one part and Richd Lee of County and State aforesaid, Witnesseth that the said William H Jackson for and in consideration of the Sum of one hundred and Eighty three dollars and Sixty nine cents . . . . conveyed unto the Said Richd Lee twenty acres of land Situated & lying and being in the County of Henry and State aforesaid on the Waters of the Holly fork of Sandy in the fifth range and Eight Section and Twelfth District enterd in the name of Samuel Hewlett . . . . The 1840 Census for Henry County, Tennessee, listed two William Jacksons, one of whom was William Jackson with the oldest male in his household aged 20 to 30 and the second of whom was William H. Jackson with the oldest male in his household aged 20 to 30. Both of these William Jacksons were too young to be the William Jackson who married Rhoda Wright in 1819.

The 1840 Census for McCracken County, Kentucky, listed a William H. Jackson with the following household:

This record may be for William H. Jackson who married Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, because Achilles Wright was listed on the same census page and within ten households of William H. Jackson. If this identification is correct, then this record indicates that William H. Jackson and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson were born between 1800 and 1810.

As more fully set forth below, William H. Jackson moved in 1841 to Massac County, Illinois.

The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index listed the marriage of William H. Jackson and Rachel Finly on February 19, 1849, in Massac County, Illinois:

"Groom	Bride	Date	Volume	Page

This record indicates that Rhoda (Wright) Jackson had died before February 19, 1849.

On January 2, 1854, at BLM Accession No. MW-0736-266 William H. Jackson, as assignee of Virtue Sweath, patented 42.79 acres of land in Massac County, Illinois:

The Biographical Review of Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin Counties, Illinois, Biographical Publishing Co., Chicago, 1893, pages 296-297, included the following about Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson in a biography of James H. Johnson:

> James H. Johnson was reared on his father's farm and had few educational advantages. In his twenty-first year he left home and was married in Massac County, Ill., to P.M. Jackson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1826. Her parents, William H. and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, were natives of Indiana and Tennessee respectively. The father was a farmer by occupation and became a resident of Massac County, Ill., in 1841. He and his son James H. prepared the grounds for the court house in Metropolis, clearing away the timber and stumps. The mother died in 1846, leaving a family of five sons and five daughters, while her husband survived her many years, dying in 1868, at which time he had reached the age of seventy-two years. Of the large family of brothers and sisters, Mrs. Johnson and one brother, James H., are the only surviving members. He is a farmer of Massac County and in his early manhood was noted for his courage, physical strength and agility. At Metropolis he once swam the Ohio River, and, like his father before him, was a model of great physical strength.

In her letter dated June 10, 1988, Virginia H. Korns enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rhoda Wright was a daughter of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright, was born in Virginia, and married William Jackson in Kentucky.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rhoda Wright was a daughter of Samuel Wright of Kentucky and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that Rhoda Wright was a daughter of Samuel Wright and Nancy (Gatewood) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William Jackson were the following:

1) possibly Thomas N. Jackson,

2) James H. Jackson, born in about 1824 or 1826 or in February 1828 in Henry County, Tennessee,

3) Paralee Melissia (Jackson) Johnson, born in about 825 or in January 1826 or in about 1827 in Henry County, Tennessee,

4) possibly William C. Jackson,

5) possibly Charlotte (Jackson) Wilson, and

6) Easther Jackson, born in 1844 in Illinois.

a. Possibly Thomas N. Jackson

Thomas N. Jackson was possibly a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson. (1825 Achilles[1], Samuel[2], Rhoda[3])

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found identifying Thomas N. Jackson as a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson.

However, in her email dated January 29, 2017, Betty Ravenholt enclosed a family report which stated that Thomas N. Jackson was probably a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson for the following reasons:

"1. Charlotte Nelms Jackson, mother of William H. Jackson, was herself the daughter of Thomas Nelms. Nancy Jackson Hudspeth, sister of William H. Jackson, named one of her sons Thomas N. Hudspeth.

2. In the censuses of 1860 and 1870, Thomas N. Jackson was reported as born about 1819 in Kentucky. William H. Jackson married Rhoda Wright in Warren Co, KY, on 2 February 1819.
3. At the time of the 1860 and 1870 censuses, Thomas N. Jackson was living in Butler Co, MO, the county to which William H. Jackson moved prior to 1860. In 1860, Thomas N. Jackson was recorded next household to the household of an H./A.? M. Thompson which included a Lucinda Finley, aged 16, born IL. William H. Jackson married as his second wife Rachel Finley in Massac Co, IL, on 19 February 1849. In 1870, Thomas N. Jackson was recorded 2nd household from William H. Jackson."

Further research will be required to confirm this identification.

b. James H. Jackson, His Wives Elizabeth (Johnson) Jackson And Amanda (Brumit) Jackson, And His Descendants

James H. Jackson was a son of Rhoda (Wright) Jackson and William H. Jackson. (1825 Achilles[1], Samuel[2], Rhoda[3])

Illinois Statewide Marriage Index listed the marriage of James H. Jackson and Elizabeth Johnson on June 16, 1850, in Massac County, Illinois:

"Groom	Bride	Date
JACKSON, JAMES H	JOHNSON, ELIZABETH	1850-06-16

Volume	Page	Lic No.	County

The 1850 Census for Massac County, Illinois, listed James Jackson with the following household on October 3, 1850:

> James H. Johnson was reared on his father's farm and had few educational advantages. In his twenty-first year he left home and was married in Massac County, Ill., to P.M. Jackson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1826. Her parents, William H. and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, were natives of Indiana and Tennessee respectively. The father was a farmer by occupation and became a resident of Massac County, Ill., in 1841. He and his son James H. prepared the grounds for the court house in Metropolis, clearing away the timber and stumps. . . . . Of the large family of brothers and sisters, Mrs. Johnson and one brother, James H., are the only surviving members. He is a farmer of Massac County and in his early manhood was noted for his courage, physical strength and agility. At Metropolis he once swam the Ohio River, and, like his father before him, was a model of great physical strength.

Jackson household on June 9, 1880, his relationship as son, and his age as 10 and born in Illinois, indicating a date of birth in about 1870. However, the information for E. F. Jackson appears to be a conflation of the data for Elizabeth H. Jackson and James H. Jackson's son Franklin Jackson listed in the 1900 Census and the census taker may have dropped the end of one line of information and the beginning of the next.

This record indicates that Paralee Melissia (Jackson) Johnson and James H. Johnson were born in about 1827. This was the only record where James H. Johnson's name was listed as John H. The Biographical Review of Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin Counties, Illinois, published by the Biographical Publishing Co., Chicago, 1893, included the following biography of James H. Johnson at pages 296-297:

> "JAMES H. JOHNSON, one of the well-known farmers of Johnson County, owns a farm on section 1, township 12, range 4. He is a native of Pope County, born near New Dixon Springs, November 9, 1825, to Lewis Johnson, who was a native of Green County, Tenn., his birth having occurred in 1804. The latter was a son of Thomas, a native of North Carolina and a farmer by occupation, and died in Tennessee at a ripe old age, leaving a family of six children, of whom Lewis was the eldest. Our subject's grandmother, whose maiden name was Frances Herrington, died in Missouri in 1858, aged about seventy-five years. Lewis Johnson was married in Pope County in the year 1824, to Miss Tennessee Ward, of Kentucky. To them were born five children, three sons and two daughters, of whom our subject is the eldest, and with a brother, Thomas, is the only surviving member of the family. The mother of these children died on the old homestead in Pope County in 1837, while still in early womanhood, being only about thirty years of age. The father was afterwards married, and departed this life in Missouri May 9, 1873, aged sixty-nine years.
> James H. Johnson was reared on his father's farm and had few educational advantages. In his twenty-first year he left home and was married in Massac County, Ill., to P. M. Jackson, who was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1826. Her parents, William H. and Rhoda (Wright) Jackson, were natives of Indiana and Tennessee respectively. The father was a farmer by occupation and became a resident of Massac County, Ill., in 1841. He and his son James H. prepared the grounds for the court house in Metropolis, clearing away the timber and stumps. The mother died in 1846, leaving a family of five sons and five daughters, while her husband survived her many years, dying in 1868, at which time he had reached the age of seventy-two years. Of the large family of brothers and sisters, Mrs. Johnson and one brother, James H., are the only surviving members. He is a farmer of Massac County and in his early manhood was noted for his courage, physical strength and agility. At Metropolis he once swam the Ohio River, and, like his father before him, was a model of great physical strength.
> Mr. and Mrs. Johnson began housekeeping in Metropolis on a very small scale, their cash capital amounting to only $1.35. They rented a house in the village, which was then a very small one, and raised a crop on rented land. Their eldest child, James H., is a minister in the Baptist Church, and a daughter, who was commonly called Alice, became the wife of Samuel W. Hester. She was christened Sarah Elizabeth Clementine Rhoda Tennessee Catherine Alice Ann Virginia, and died in 1887, leaving two sons. Our subject and wife have the following living children: James H., who is married and has a son and two daughters; Lewis G., a farmer of Massac County; Eli W., who is a railroad man, his residence being in Brooklyn, this State; William T., who carries on a farm near his father's residence and has a family of five sons and two daughters; and Charles F., a railroad man living at Cairo, Ill., who has a family comprising a wife and two sons. They have also buried two infant sons.

The eldest of the family, James H., was with his father in the army, both being members of the Sixth Illinois Cavalry. Our subject was however, first a member of Company M, Light Artillery, enlisting in 1861 and serving in that regiment until August 29, 1863, when he returned and re-enlisted in March, 1865, in Company M. At the end of one year's service father and son were both honorably discharged. Mr. Johnson, Sr., has been an invalid for many years, much of the time being confined to his bed as a result of the privations and hardships of his service in the defense of the Union. He is one of the worthy pensioners of Uncle Sam and is patiently awaiting his last discharge and final promotion. He and his sons are true-blue Republicans, and are esteemed members of the Baptist Church."

On January 15, 1801, James Wright executed a promissory note payable to William Brown & Company, a copy of which was included in Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1836-002, Brown v. Wright:

"32.3.9)

The 1810 Census for Gallatin County, Kentucky, listed James Wright with the following household:

Name of Head of Family	Free White Males	Age	Free White Female	Age	All Other Free Persons	Slaves
James Wright	1	26-45	1	26-45
	1	0-10	2	0-10

As will be set forth below, James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright had only three children, one son and two daughters, and migrated to Kentucky in about 1806 or 1809. This is the only James Wright in the 1810 Census for Kentucky with the appropriate number and age of children for James Wright and this record is probably for James Wright, the son of Achilles Wright. This record indicates that James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright were born between 1765 and 1784.

In November 1811 in Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1836-002, William Brown & Company filed a complaint against James Wright and Lucy Crisp for payment of James Wright's debt from funds due him and in the hands of Lucy Crisp:

> "To the worshipful the Justices of Neson County in Chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your Orators William Brown & Co. that a certain James Wright, whom together with Lucy Crisp your Orators pray may be made Defts hereto, stands justly indebted to them the Sum of thirty two punds three shillings & nine pence with legal interest thereon from the 15th day of January 1801 by penal bill which is hereto annexed & prayed to be taken as part of this Bill; that the said Defendt. James Wright is also indebted to them the further Sum of £4.18 upon an open account which is also hereto annexed & prayed to be taken as part of this their bill. The answer of Lucy Crisp to the complaint of William Brown & Company stated that she had filed a bond for £133 for James Wright's legacy from the estate of William Crisp and that she had paid that amount and nothing further was due from her:

"Answer of Lucy Crisp to a bill in chancery exhibited against her & James Wright by Wm Brown & Co. This respondent says she executed her bound to the Comrs. for the amount of James Wright legacy in the Estate of Wm Crisp decd. for £133 or thereabouts. That she has paid and has been Decreet to pay the whole amount of the said bond & therefore she has nothing in her hands belonging to the absent Deft. She prays to be Dismissed with her costs &c

On June 28, 1814, in the case of Crisp v. Montgomery, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1820-013, a summons was issued against James Wright who had intermarried with one of the legatees of William Crisp, deceased:

"The Commonwealth of Virginia -

To the Sheriff of Nelson County, Greeting.

We command you to Summon James Montgomery James Stevens & Wm Loving Commissioners acting for the benefit of James Wright (who intermarried with one of the legates of Wm Crisp decd) & Samuel Edmunds jr to appear before the justices of our County Court of nelson at the Court-house on the 4th Monday in August next, to answer a certain bill in Chancery, exhibited against them in our said Court by Lucy Crisp

And this they shall in no wise omit And have then there this Wright. Witness Spotswood Garland Clerk of our said Court this 28th day of June 1814 and in the 38 year of the Commonwealth.

About or sometime after June 28, 1814, in the case of Crisp v. Montgomery, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1820-013, Lucy Crisp filed the following petition:

"To the worshipful Court of Nelson County in Chancery sitting your oratrix Lucy Crisp represents that she executed her bond to James Montgomery &c for the benefit of James Wright for the sum of £133:6:10 on the 11th December 1809 being the whole amount of James Wrights legacy and interest in the estate of William Crisp, that the said bond was Credited for £15:14:9 before the dat of the said bond. That Jenkins filed an attachment in chancery against the said James Wright & obtained a decree against him as also Thomas Hawkins William Brown & Co. has also filed an attachment and £75 has been restrained in her hands subject to the further order and decree of this Court, which order has never been recinded. Your Oratrix represents that at the last term she was too sick to attend and as some of her defence was of an equitable nature she could not then have availed herself of it at Common law that the aforesaid decrees and amount restrained in her hands by Wm Brown & Co and her order drawn on your Oratrix by the Commissioners for Hawkins decree for £23:18:3 and other payments, and her claim for Costs as Garnished will she supposes more than balance the amount of said bond. Yet so it is that a Judgt. has been obtained on the same for the benefit of Samuel Edmunds who had also a decree for a debt against the said Wright and your Oratrix is now harrassed with an execution for the same for £37:1:0. Your Oratrix prays to refer to this Court to ascertain their several amounts. your Oratrix avers that all the payments made for James Wright were out of her said legacy and that he had no funds visible besides that legacy She prays therefore that the said Judgment may be enjoined untill she can make the case more plain and manifest and that the said Edmunds may be made party to this bill. your Oratrix boaded said Wrights wife and two children four months which was not Credited on said bond. These with her other claims which she expects to prove will show the propriety of arresting the said Judgment

James Wright has not as yet been identified in the 1820 Census.

The will of Achilles Wright dated January 17, 1824, and probated in September 1825 at Oldham County, Kentucky, W.B. 1/34 listed James Wright as one of his children:

". . . . Item Second. My will and desire is that my sons George and Nelson and my daughters Lucy, Milly, Patsy and Polly and the heirs of my son James have an equal share or portion of the balance of my estate, and as there is accounts standing against each of the above named seven children except the heirs of James, my desire is that these assets shall be taken account of and considered as part of my estate and each receive his portion accordingly. Item third. My will and desire is that the heirs of my son James shall receive an equal portion of the balance of my estate with the above seven mentioned children and that his son George shall receive one half of that portion, and the other half shall be equally divided between the two girls Mahala and Elizabeth. . . ."

This record identifies George Wright, Mahala Wright, and Elizabeth Wright as the children and heirs of James Wright and indicates that James Wright had probably died before January 17, 1824.

On November 10, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025, George Wright, Elijah Skidmore, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, and Mahala (Wright) Covert, as heirs of their parents James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright and their grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp, filed a petition for the sale of the land of William Crisp:

> "To the Honorable Lucas P Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Nelson
> Your Orators and Oratrices George Wright and Elijah Skidmore and Elizabeth his wife formerly Elizabeth Wright and Mahala Covert formerly Mahala Wright which said George, Elizabeth and Mahala, are the only legal heirs and representatives of Lucy Wright who with her husband James Wright have departed this life both Intestate. Humbly Complaining shew unto your Honor that William Crisp the elder late of the County of Nelson departed this life it is believed in the year 1806 Intestate, that at his death he was possessed as of fee of a tract of land and sundry slaves and personal estate which tract of land lies in said County of Nelson on the waters of Ruckers run and contains two hundred acres more or less situation metes and boundaries and title of which will be better seen by reference to the Deed herewith filed marked A from John Depriest & wife to said William Crisp which is prayed to be taken as a part of this bill, that the said William Crisp at his death left living, his widow Lucy Crisp (who has since departed this life intestate) and the following children to wit, Elizabeth, John, Polly, Sally, Lucy William, Simon, Catharine, Peggy, & Stilly who were the legal heirs and representatives of said William Crisp decd. that Elizabeth afterwards married Thomas Harrison, both of whom have since departed this life Intestate and without issue, that Polly had intermarried with Charles Purvis and that she has since departed this life, leaving at her death her husband the said Charles Purvis, and children to wit George T Purvis, Charles W Purvis Simon Parker Purvis William Purvis, Eliza C. Purvis who intermarried with Ruben Burnett, Lucinda F who intermarried with Joel M Wheeler and Sarah S Purvis who intermarried with James Wills, that Sally had intermarried with Landon S Gowing, that Lucy had intermarried with James Wright and that the said James & Lucy have both departed this life residents of the State of Kentucky, whither they had removed shortly after or about the death of the said William Crisp, Intestate and that they left living three children towit the said George, ____ who are the only legal heirs of the said Lucy, that William has since departed this life Intestate and without issue or wife she being also dead, that Catharine afterwards intermarried with Richard Bryant, that Stilly intermarried with Thomas Melton and that ____ intermarried with Thomas Alfred. That the said John Crisp, the said Thomas Melton & wife the said Richard Bryant & wife the said Thomas Alfred & wife are not inhabitants of this State. That they are informed and believe the said Thomas Alfred & wife having received large advances from the said William

Crisp in his life time refuse to them into hotch pot those advances & to come into division, so that now the lands aforesaid belong alone, to the said John Crisp Richard Bryant & wife, Thomas Melton & wife, Landon S Gowing & wife, Charles Purvis & Children, and your Orators & Oratrices as the legal heirs & representatives of Lucy Wright decd. That the said Charles Purvis has the land in his possession and refuses to make distribution among the claimants, or in any way to pay over to your orators & oratrices any satisfaction in relative thereto. Your Orators and Oratrices state that in investigation of the matters preparatory to bringing this suit they discover, a Bill was presented by said Charles Purvis to the County Court of Nelson, for a sale & division of the lands & personal estate of said William Crisp decd. that none of the parties were summoned, that no order of publication was issued or awarded, that no answer was filed except the answer of Lucy Crisp who styles herself guardian to Peggy Crisp, that on this _____ and uncertain proceeding an order was obtained from the County Court of Amherst appointing certain persons as commissioners to allot to the widow her dower and to sell the lands and divide the personal estate and to make report to the Court, whether the said Commissioners ever acted in the matter at al is unknown to your Orator & Oratrices but if they did the Act was totally nugatory and of no effect as the proceedings were not in accordance with law, and if it was, no report was ever returned to Court and the Plff in that Case dismissed the said Bill and put an end to all further proceedings therein at the march Court 1814. And your Orators and Oratrices aver that, the said Lucy Wright their mother never did assent to any sale of the land aforesaid, that she never did receive any consideration in money or otherwise for her tittle therein, that the said James Wright was then a non resident of Virginia, and that he nor his wife the said Lucy in their lifetimes never did part with any right of said Lucy therein but that the right still remains by operation of law in your Orators & Oratrices for the share of said Lucy in the land aforesaid, that at the time the said James Wright & wife removed from this state your Orators were of very tender years, and that their mother remained a married woman until her death which was about the year 1826 that the said James has since died. Your Orators and Oratrices charge that after the death of the said William Crisp that his wife Lucy administered on his estate that she never returned any settlement of her account as such, that she died about the year 1820 and that the said Charles Purvis administered on her estate that he has returned non inventory or settlement of her Estate, that no administrator de bonis non was appointed to the Estate of William Crisp decd. that the Dower negroes ____ in number were taken into possession by said Charles Purvis and others combining and confederating with him and disposed of or squanders without paying to the said Lucy Wright or her representatives or husband any part or portion of said dower negroes, that the said Peggy Crisp departed this life Intestate and that the slaves of which she died seized & possessed have been squandered or otherwise disposed of by the said Charles Purvis or the said Lucy Crisp in her lifetime who was the administrator of said Peggy Crisp. They further charge that the lands aforesaid of which said William Crisp died seized and possessed have been since the death of Lucy Crisp decd, wholly in the possession of said Charles Purvis, that the said lands have been productive and was worth in yearly rent a large sum to wit the sum of $____ and that they have as yet received no part of the lands aforesaid or the profits thereof nor have they received any part of the dower estate of Lucy Crisp decd. in the personal estate of Wm Crisp decd. nor have they received any part of the Estate of Peggy Crisp decd. all of which has been disposed of by the said Charles Purvis and some one or more of the other children & heirs of said William Crisp decd. to their great injury and oppression. They therefore pray that Justice may be done unto them and for that purpose pray that the lands of which said William Crisp died seized and possessed which is not worth three hundred dollars to each of the original heirs and legal representatives may be sold and the proceeds divided among those legally and equitably entitled thereto, and that the said Charles Purvis render an account of the rents and profits thereof, that the dower slaves of the said Lucy Crisp in the estate of her husband William Crisp decd if to be found in the possession of any one or more of the heirs of said William Crisp decd be also divided or sold & the proceeds divided among the legal claimants thereto, and if not to be found that a decree over in favour of your orators & oratrices against those heirs who have received them be awarded by the Court for their just distributable share and for that purpose they pray that an account be taken of the value and hires of said slaves, or of the amount of sales and interests thereof, and that an account be also taken of such of the slaves if any or other personal estate which went into the Lands possession or to the personal estate which to the use of any of the brothers & sisters of Peggy Crisp decd. and that the said Charles Purvis be also compelled to render an account of his actings & doings as admr. of Lucy Crisp decd. and the just portion of your orators & oratrices therein be decreed to them.

Your orators & oratrices therefore pray that the said Charles Purvis in his own right and as admr. of Lucy Crisp decd. and his children to wit, the said, George T Purvis, Chas. W Purvis, William Purvis Simon Purvis, Rauben Barnett and Eliza C his wife Joel M Wheeler and Lucinda F his wife and James Wells & Sarah L his wife, Thomas Melton & Stilly his wife, Richard Bryant an Catharine his wife Thomas Alfred and ____ his wife and Simon Crisp be made defendants hereto & compelled to answer the allegations of this bill that an order of publication be issued be issued against, the above defendants to wit the said John Crisp Richard Bryan & Catharine his wife, Thomas Melton & Stilly his wife & Thomas Alfred & ____ wife and the said George T Purvis who it is believed is a non resident of this state, and that a summons be awarded against the said Charles Purvis, in his own right and as admr. of Lucy Crisp decd., and his said children, Charles W Purvis William Purvis jr, Parker Purvis, Ruben Barnett and Eliza C his wife Joel M Wheeler and Lucinda F his wife and James Wells & Sarah S his wife, and the said Simon Crisp and Landon S Gowing & Sally his wife, and they pray for general aid and relief and will pray &c

Perrow for Compts

filed 10th Nov 1837"

The plaintiffs are the same persons described in the will of Achilles Wright as his grandchildren and, therefore, this record confirms that James Wright, the son of Achilles Wright, married Lucy Crisp. This record also identifies the children of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright as the following:

1) George Wright,
2) Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, and
3) Mahala (Wright) Covert.

This record also indicates that James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright migrated in about 1806 to Kentucky, that they resided in about 1814 in Kentucky, that Lucy (Crisp) Wright died in about 1826 in Kentucky, and that James Wright may have died after 1826 in Kentucky.

George Wright of this record was 1845 George Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky, a son of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, and Ellis G. Wright was a son of 1845 George Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky, and Silas Gatewood was a son of Mildred (Wright) Gatewood and grandson of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky. These deponents clearly connect James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright with the family of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky.

Sometime after May 22, 1846, the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025, was settled among the parties by an agreed payment of $400 by Charles Purvis to the plaintiffs:

"Wright &c

In her letter dated June 10, 1988, Virginia H. Korns enclosed family group sheets which stated that James Wright was a son of 1825 Achilles Wright of Oldham County, Kentucky, and Nancy (____) Wright, was born in Amherst County, Virginia, married possibly Lucy Crisp on February 1, 1800, in Amherst County, Kentucky, and died before 1824 in Kentucky.

In her letter dated June 28, 1988, Mary H. Williams enclosed family group sheets which stated that James Wright was a son of Achilles Wright and Nancy (____) Wright and married Lucy Crisp on February 1, 1800 in Amherst County, Virginia.

In her letter dated September 21, 1991, Mary V. Giera enclosed family group sheets which stated that James Wright was a son of Achilles Wright and Nancy (____) Wright and died before 1824.

The Wright Family Workbook, Volume 9/1, stated that James Wright was a son of Achilles Wright and Nancy (____) Wright and died before 1824.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright were the following:

1) Mahala (Wright) Covert, born between 1800 and 1810,

2) Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, born in about 1809 or 1810 in Amherst County, Virginia, or Kentucky, and

3) George Wright, born in about 1812 or 1812 in Kentucky,

1. Mahala (Wright) Covert And Her Husband Covert

Mahala (Wright) Covert was a daughter of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright. (1825 Achilles[1], James[2])

The will of Achilles Wright dated January 17, 1824, and probated in September 1825 at Oldham County, Kentucky, W.B. 1/34 indicated that Mahala Wright as one of the children of his son James Wright:

> ". . . . Item third. My will and desire is that the heirs of my son James shall receive an equal portion of the balance of my estate with the above seven mentioned children and that his son George shall receive one half of that portion, and the other half shall be equally divided between the two girls Mahala and Elizabeth. . . ."

On November 10, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025, George Wright, Elijah Skidmore, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, and Mahala (Wright) Covert, as heirs of their parents James Wright and Lucy

(Crisp) Wright and their grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp, filed a petition for the sale of the land of William Crisp:

> "To the Honorable Lucas P Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Nelson
> Your Orators and Oratrices George Wright and Elijah Skidmore and Elizabeth his wife formerly Elizabeth Wright and Mahala Covert formerly Mahala Wright which said George, Elizabeth and Mahala, are the only legal heirs and representatives of Lucy Wright who with her husband James Wright have departed this life both Intestate. > . . . .

This record identifies Mahala (Wright) Covert as a daughter of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright.

2. Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, Her Husband Franklin Elijah Skidmore, And Her Descendants

Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore was a daughter of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright. (1825 Achilles[1], James[2])

The will of Achilles Wright dated January 17, 1824, and probated in September 1825 at Oldham County, Kentucky, W.B. 1/34 indicated that Elizabeth Wright as one of the children of his son James Wright:

> ". . . . Item third. My will and desire is that the heirs of my son James shall receive an equal portion of the balance of my estate with the above seven mentioned children and that his son George shall receive one half of that portion, and the other half shall be equally divided between the two girls Mahala and Elizabeth. . . ."

Oldham County Marriage Records 1824-1864, available from kykinfolk.com/oldham/OldhamMarriages.pdf., listed the marriage of Elizabeth Wright and Francis Elijah Skidmore on February 7, 1830, at Oldham County, Kentucky:

"Marriage	Marriage Date	Book Num	Page	Comments
Skidmore, Francis Elijah & Wright, Elizabeth	2/7/1830	1 (1824-1853)	18	Duplicate entry on page 18"

Oldham County, Kentucky, Marriage Index, 1823-1851 compiled by Annie Walker Burns listed the marriage of Elizabeth Wright, daughter of George Wright, and Francis Elijah Skidmore on February 3, 1830, at Oldham County, Kentucky:

Groom	Bride	Parent or Guardian	Date
Skidmore, Francis Elijah	Wright, Elizabeth	father - George	03 Feb 1830

This record has been relied on to identify Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore as a daughter of 1845 George Wright of Trimble County, Kentucky. However, the George Wright of this record was either Elizabeth Wright's uncle or her brother and not her father and that George Wright was probably acting as guardian for Elizabeth. As set forth below, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore was the daughter of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright.

On August 28, 1832, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore and her husband Elijah Skidmore in Henry County, Kentucky, appointed Charles Purvis their attorney in fact to act for them in connection with Elizabeth's interest in the estates of her grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp and her aunt Margaret Crisp, a copy of which power of attorney was included in the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025:

Dora A. (Colbert) (Sachleben) Bowman was a daughter of Ruth Ann (Skidmore) (Colbert) Driskell and Russell Colbert. (1825 Achilles[1], James[2], Elizabeth[3], Ruth Ann[4])

The 1880 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Dora Colbert with her mother Ruth Driskell in the John Whitaker household on June 3, 1880, her relationship as boarder, and her age as 7 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1863.

Q. Mr. Skidmore, what is your age and occupation?
A. I am 71 past, used to be a farmer.
Q. How long have you been a resident of Trimble County?
A. 71 years only what time I was in the army. I did live two years in Henry County. I have been here a long time.

A. I don't own any.
Q. What property does your wife own?
A. She owns 82 acres of land down by Antioch.
Q. What is that land worth?
A. Give it in at $800.
Q. What in your opinion is its real vendable value, that is to sell it?
A. It woud'nt bring over $1200.
Q. What means of support do you have out side of this farm?
A. None at all.
Q. How much during the year do you make on the farm?
A. I don't make anything, I can only work in the garden a little.
Q. What income does your wife get off the farm?
A. Nothing only a living, the boy that we live with don't make all of that on the farm. He supports us.
Q. Who lives on the farm with you?
A. George and John. John supports us.
Q. How old is John?
A. 35 years old.
Q. Do you have as much as $300 during the run of the year?
A. No sir, I don't have that much income.
Q. What is your ability to work and earn money by manual labor?
A. I could'nt do a hard days work to save my life. I have completely broken down my nerves.

Q. Do you have any income at all except what you get off the farm?
A. No sir.
Q. But for your son that lives with you, could you earn a living for you and your wife off the farm?
A. No sir, I coud'nt do it, I am not able and besides I never could plough in my life. I was'nt raised to plough and don't know anything about it.

Q. Do I understand you to say that John supports you and his mother?
A. He takes care of us, Yes sir.
Q. You have no other income from any other place?
A. No sir.
Q. Would that farm support you and your wife should you rent it to some one else other than your own son?
A. I don't expect it would. It is getting worn out pretty bad now, no tobacco land, no timber and no grass.
Q. Have'nt you sown any of it in grass?

A. Yes sir.
Q. Does both your sons and yourself and wife get a support off that farm?
A. John raises his young stock every year and sells it.
Q. Does he raise the stock on this farm?
A. He keeps it there a while and when he takes it off he has to pay pasturage on it, there is not any grass on that farm.
Q. Do they cultivate any land other than on that farm, don't raise any crop?
A. That is all.
Q. Have they any income other than what they get from that farm?
A. George is always carpentering around in the winter and he makes his support by that and raises a few mules and sells them to throw in on it.
Q. About how much do they get for their crop that they sell off that place a year?
A. They sell from $150 to $200 a piece, sometimes it is not so much.

Findagrave.com listed the joint gravestone of Virginia Skidmore, George Skidmore, John Skidmore, and Katie Skidmore in the Bedford Cemetery, Bedford, Trimble County, Kentucky:

"Skidmore

George	John	Katie	Virginia
1869 - 1952	1874 - 1946	1871 - 1917	1866 - 1937"

Although this stone listed Virginia Skidmore as born in 1866 and died in 1937, which would indicate that it was for someone other than Virginia (Colbert) Skidmore, since her birth was in 1836 and her death in 1927, this was probably an error in preparing the stone and this is the gravestone for Virginia (Colbert) Skidmore.

Now, we E. B. McCain Administrator and G. J. Skidmore surety, do hereby covenant to and with the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the penal sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, that the said E. B. If it shall hereafter appear that a last Will and Testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proved and recorded, we further covenant that the said E. B. Newspapers.com listed the following news article dated March 23, 1909, from the Indianapolis Star, Indianapolis, Indiana, regarding Perry D. Colbert and his return from a round the world tour:

"Chinese Dislike American Clothes

I want a nice, quiet room where I can rest and won't be disturbed for two whole days," said a tall young man wearing a brown traveling suit, as he deposited a big traveling bag on the desk at the Claypool Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Behind him stood two bell boys holding other traveling bags and suit cases which belonged to the tall young man.

The new guest wrote on the register: "Perry D. Colbert, Hong Kong, China."

Mr. Colbert got his quiet room, and did not emerge until 6 o'clock, when he came down for his dinner. He had just finished a trip of 32,000 miles, which included a tour of the world. Years ago Mr. Colbert lived in Indiana. At the close of the Spanish-American war he went to Hong Kong and opened a tailoring establishment. He also opened a branch house in Manilla. A year ago he sold out his business and started out to see the world. He completed the tour yesterday when he arrived in Indianapolis.

"I sold clothes to the Americans and Europeans in Hong Kong, " he said, "but not to the natives. The Chinese will never take kindly to our mode of dress. Even the fetching costumes of American women who go over there do not appeal to the Chinese women. They say the Americans and the English dress "queerly."

Mr. Colbert was in Japan when the American fleet touched the Japanese shores. "A war with Japan," he said, "would be a fine fight, for the Japanese government is just as well fixed as America in the way of battle ships. I saw the American fleet when it reached Japan. For every battle ship in the fleet Japan had one just as good.

"I want to say, however, that this talk about war with Japan is all rot. There is nothing to it. Japan does not want to fight America, and feels kindly toward us. In all my travels of 32,000 miles I did not find a single country that does not feel friendly toward the United States.

"Concerning the Phillippines I should like to be quoted as saying that the United States made no mistake in taking over those Islands. It is a great country, and is going to develop enormous riches in the way of mining.

In his tour of the world Mr. Colbert says that he found France the most up to date of the foreign countries. "The most miserable conditions I found," he said, "were in Egypt.""

The 1910 Census for Amarillo, Potter County, Texas, listed Perry D. Colbert in the Amarillo Hotel on May 31, 1910, his relationship as boarder, his age as 30 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1880, his marital status as single, and occupation as traveling salesman of dry goods.

The reference to George Wright as an orphan indicates that this was the George Wright who was the son of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright.

On August 28, 1832, George Wright appointed Charles Purvis his attorney in fact to act for him in connection with his interest in the estates of his grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp and his aunt Margaret Crisp, a copy of which power of attorney was included in the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025:

The 1837 Tax List for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed three George Wrights, two with one white tythe and one listed as George Wright, Sr., with $100 of property and it is probable that one of the George Wrights with one white tythe was the George Wright who married Jemima Lane.

On November 10, 1837, in the case of Wright v. Purvis, Nelson County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1846-025, George Wright, Elijah Skidmore, Elizabeth (Wright) Skidmore, and Mahala (Wright) Covert, as heirs of their parents James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright and their grandparents William Crisp and Lucy Crisp, filed a petition for the sale of the land of William Crisp:

"To the Honorable Lucas P Thompson Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Nelson

said George, Elizabeth and Mahala, are the only legal heirs and representatives of Lucy Wright who with her husband James Wright have departed this life both Intestate. Humbly Complaining shew unto your Honor that William Crisp the elder late of the County of Nelson departed this life it is believed in the year 1806 Intestate, that at his death he was possessed as of fee of a tract of land and sundry slaves and personal estate which tract of land lies in said County of Nelson on the waters of Ruckers run and contains two hundred acres more or less . . . . that the said William Crisp at his death left living, his widow Lucy Crisp (who has since departed this life intestate) and the following children to wit, ... Lucy . . . . that Lucy had intermarried with James Wright and that the said James & Lucy have both departed this life residents of the State of Kentucky, whither they had removed shortly after or about the death of the said William Crisp, Intestate and that they left living three children towit the said George, ____ who are the only legal heirs of the said Lucy, ... that the said James Wright was then a non resident of Virginia, and that he nor his wife the said Lucy in their lifetimes never did part with any right of said Lucy therein but that the right still remains by operation of law in your Orators & Oratrices for the share of said Lucy in the land aforesaid, that at the time the said James Wright & wife removed from this state your Orators were of very tender years, and that their mother remained a married woman until her death which was about the year 1826 that the said James has since died.
filed 10th Nov 1837"

This record identifies George Wright as a son of James Wright and Lucy (Crisp) Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Mary Frances (Wright) Cook and Alexander Cook were the following:

1) Emma Cook, probably Emma (Cook) (Sanders) Shute, born in December 1854 or in about 1855 in Kentucky or Missouri,

2) Dora Matilda Cook, born on March 13, 1859, in Trimble County, Kentucky,

3) Charles B. Cook, born in June 1861 or in about 1862 in Kentucky,

4) Sallie L. (Cook) Hawk, born in June 1865 or in about 1866 in Kentucky,

5) Lula S. (Cook) (Campbell) Cleaveland, born in June 1868 or in about 1869 or 1870 in Trimble County, Kentucky,

i. Emma Cook, Probably Emma (Cook) (Sanders) Shute, Her Husbands Benjamin F. Sanders And Arthur L. Shute, And Her Descendants

Emma Cook, probably Emma (Cook) (Sanders) Shute was a daughter of Mary Frances (Wright) Cook and Alexander Cook. (1825 Achilles[1], James[2], George[3], Mary Frances[4])

The 1860 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Emma Cook in the Alexander Cook household on June 29, 1860, and her age as 6 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1854.

The 1870 Census for Trimble County, Kentucky, listed Emma Cook in the Alexander Cook household on July 5, 1870, and her age as 15 and born in Kentucky, indicating a date of birth in about 1855.

No direct documentary evidence has as yet been found that identifies Emma (Cook) (Sanders) Shute as the same person as Emily Cook, the daughter of Mary Frances (Wright) Cook and Alexander Cook. However, circumstantial evidence, with some possible inconsistencies, indicate that this identification is correct and the remainder of this section will discuss the documentation found regarding Emma (Cook) (Sanders) Shute.

The marriage record of Emma Cook and Ben F. Sanders was dated in December 1876 in Trimble County, Kentucky:

Dorsey dated on December 28, 1944, in Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana, listed his parents as Esra Dorsey and Susan Burris and his birth on August 27, 1867, in Trimble County, Kentucky. At the house of E. F Skidmore in presence of Jas. F. Hall Strk Holms and Daniel Lane Jr.

June 28th 1860 F. P. Grinstead M.G. M.E.C. South"

The age and place of birth of this Lucy Ellen Wright are the same as those for Lucy Wright, the daughter of George Wright and Jemima (Lane) Wright. In addition, the marriage location of the residence of E. F. Skidmore, who would be Franklin Elijah Skidmore, the brother in law of George and Jemima Wright, would seem to confirm this identification. The witness Daniel Lane Jr. was probably Daniel Smith Lane, a cousin of George Wright, and adds additional circumstantial evidence to this identification.

> On the recommendation of Sam V. Perrott, chief of police, the board of public safety, yesterday afternoon, reduced Zack Wright, a wagonman at plice headquarters, to the rank of patrolman. When Perrott made the recommendation the members of the board asked no questions and amde no comment. They simply did what Perrott recommended. Perrott did not make any explanation of the reason for the reduction of Wright.
>
> "What's the matter with Wright?" Perrott was asked by a man at the meeting.
> The chief did not reply, but merely gazed out at a window.

"What's the matter with Wright?" Perrott was asked again.

Perrott seemed to have developed a sudden attack of ear trouble.

"What's the matter with Wright?" was asked again.

"Why, were you talking to me?" Perrott asked, whereupon he walked out of the room.

Signed Remonstrance.

Wright lives in the Fourth ward, and he signed the remonstrance filed with the county commissioners to prohibit licensed saloons in the ward. Whether this action had any effect on his standing as a member of the police department, however, does not appear in connection with his reduction in rank.

This record indicates that Howard Wright and Iona Della (Borden) (Empson) (Wright) Curtis were born in about 1889. The listing of Howard Wright's occupation as steam shovel engineer confirms him as the same Howard Wright as listed in the World War I Draft Registration Card and the identification of Jada Borden as brother in law confirms the identification of Howard's wife Della as Iona Della (Borden) (Empson) (Wright) Curtis. Although Della's daughter Hazel was listed as Wright, her age of 14 confirms that this was actually Hazel Empson, a daughter of Della's prior marriage to Harry Empson. This census record in conjunction with the records relating to Harry Empson set forth above indicate that Iona Della (Borden) (Empson) (Wright) Curtis and Harry Empson divorced probably before his enlistment in the Army on May 7, 1918, and that Harry survived World War I to remarry on October 24, 1919.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of James L. Colbert in the Providence Cemetery, Providence, Trimble County, Kentucky:

"James L. Colbert

Although this record listed his death in 1851, I suspect that this was a misreading of 1891 and therefore, this record is the gravestone of James Logan Colbert.

Neither Luradine or Laura D. (Wright) Colbert nor James L. or Logan Colbert has been located in the 1900 Census.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Luradine or Laura D. (Wright) Colbert and James Logan Colbert were the following:

1) Martha Ann (Colbert) Phillips, born in about 1879 or in May 1882 in Kentucky,

2) Wiley Colbert, born in 1885 or in February 1886 in Kentucky,

3) Pearl O. (Colbert) Haire, born on December 23, 1888, or in about 1889 in Henderson County, Kentucky, and

4) Vivian Lee (Colbert) (Haire) Haire, born on March 28, 1889, or on march 29, 1891, in Hebbardsville, Henderson County, Kentucky.

married second Lillie (____) Phillips in about 1910. The listing of Nellie Phillips as born in 1901 indicates that she was the daughter of Martha Ann (Colbert) Phillips and John Hamilton Phillips.

iii. Pearl O. (Colbert) Haire, Her Husband William A. Haire, And Her Descendants

Pearl O. (Colbert) Haire was a daughter of Luradine or Laura D. (Wright) Colbert and James Logan Colbert. (1825 Achilles[1], 1831 Nelson[2], William B.[3], Luradine or Laura D.[4])

The marriage record of Arthur P. Colbert and Willie Hair was dated on January 16, 1905, in Henderson County, Kentucky:

"[1904-1905] Marriages.

Although this record listed the bride as Arthur P. Colbert, that would seem clearly not to be a bride's given name. A number of Ancestry.com family trees listed her first given name as Offa, but no documentation has as yet been found to confirm that first given name. If her first given name was Offa, then this record may have been a mislisting of the bride's first name, which sounded like Arthur. In any event, the date of marriage and the ages of the parties are consistent with the 1910 Census set forth below and, therefore, this record is probably that of the marriage of Pearl O. Colbert and William A. Haire.

The 1910 Census for Henderson County, Kentucky, listed William Haire with the following household on May 12, 1910:

Newspapers.com listed the following news article dated January 29, 1907, in The Los Angeles Times regarding the death of Minerva (Ray) Peak and the marriage of Pauline P. Peak and Albert W. McCready:

"Death Makes Sad Their Honeymoon.

Death saddened a honeymoon last night when it suddenly claimed Mrs. Geo. A. Peak of No. 840 Carondolet street. Mrs. Peak, who was aged 56 years, became ill at 9:30 o'clock and a physician was at once summoned, but she passed away within an hour. She was the mother of Miss Pauline P. Peak, who was married on Saturday under very romantic circumstances. The two events, while not in any way connected, have a peculiar and pathetic interest on account of the coincidence. It is an unusual instance of great joy and deep sorrow doming together.

The marriage - in every way a happy one - was an elopement.

Saturday morning, Albert W. McCready - or "Willie," as his mother still fondly calls him - awoke before the first sunbeams found their way into his little room in the McCready establishment at No. 942 Carondelet street. Down the street a way, at No. 840, Miss Pauline Peak, formerly of Topeka, Kan., also awoke, simultaneously. The awakenings were prearranged, premeditated, and were caused by two alarm clocks, set so as to ring at the same time.

The other outward facts of an elopement that followed via the Seventh street car line, Salt Lake train to riverside and return, are commonplace, but the sotry back of the affair is a stirring one in the annals of lovers.

For six months Willie had been "teasing" to be allowed to marry pretty Miss Peak. Miss Peak was willing; Mis Peak's mother and father were willing, even to the extent of being in love with the boy themselves, according to McCready's mother; Willie's little brother was willing, looking upon the event as "inevitable;" everybody in the world was apparently willing, with the exception of Willie's own fond mother and father. Their only objection was that he hadn't attained sufficient years to entitle him to a marriage license.

Dread forebodings of what was going to happen came to Willie's younger brother, but he maintained a discreet silence. The parents remained firm in their stand that the event would have to be delayed until next September, when their boy would reach the age of 21, but at length they began to have an inkling that that would prove too long a time, and so began to hold out hopes to William that they might be moved to relent in June.

Signs of weakening were all that the young people wanted, and forthwith the alarm clocks were set. Sunday evening a messenger boy appeared before Mrs. McCready, saying that her son and daughter-in-law were comfortably settled in their new establishment at No. 840 Carondelet, the home of the bride, and that they would be glad to receive her and her blessing as soon as that was forthcoming.

Willie's mother only laughted when she got thenews, which was all the blessing required.

Albert William McCready, the handsome and youthful groom, is well known in local automobile circles, and also as a former student at the Los Angeles High School. He attend the school for ayear and a half, leaving it in December of 1905 to go into the automobile insurance business. At the High School he was a member of the Alpha Pi Fraternity, and did some good work on the track team. At present he has an office down town, and besides doing an automobile insurance business, has an agency for a car. it was at a High School club dance at Kramer's on New Year's Eve of 1906 that he first met Miss Peak, and the match was a love-at-first-sight affair.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCready of No. 912 Carondelet street. His father is a well-known builder and contractor, and came here with his family eight years ago from South Dakota."

v. George Roby Peak

George Roby Peak was a son of Minerva (Ray) Peak and George A. Peak. (1825 Achilles[1], 1831 Nelson[2], Narcissa M.[3], Minerva[4])

The 1895 Kansas State Census listed Roby Peak in the George A. Peak household in Shawnee County, Kansas, on March 1, 1895, and his age as 4, indicating a date of birth in about 1891.

The 1900 Census for Shawnee County, Kansas, listed George R. Peak in the George A. Peak household on June 4, 1900, his relationship as son, and his birth in January 1891 in Kansas.

The 1905 Kansas State Census did not list George Roby Peak in the George A. Peak household in Shawnee County, Kansas, on March 1, 1905, indicating that he had probably died before that date.

The 1910 Census for Los Angeles County, California, listed Roby Peak in the Albert W. McCready household on April 20, 1910, his relationship as brother in law, his age as 20 and born in Kansas, indicating a date of birth in about 1890, his marital status as single, and his occupation as general machinist.

The California, Death Index, 1940-1997, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of a Roby L. Peak in 1913:

"Name:	Roby L Peak
Birth Year:	abt 1890
Death Date:	3 May 1913
Age at Death:	23
Death Place:	Los Angeles, California, USA"

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Roby G. L. Peak, Jr., in the Angelus Rosedale Cemetery, Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California:

"Roby G. L.
Peak Jr.
1890 - 1913"

The differences in the names in the 1910 Census, the death record, and the gravestone, especially the use of the suffix "Jr.", raises the possibility that there were two Roby Peaks involved. However, the 1910 Census listed only one Roby Peak and no George Peak in Los Angeles County, California, and George Roby Wright has not as yet been found in the 1920 Census. The result is that George Roby Peak was probably the same person as Roby G. L. Peak, Jr.

b. Nancy J. Or B. D. (Ray) Gray And Her Husband Gray

Nancy J. or B. D. (Ray) Gray was a daughter of Narcissa M. (Wright) Ray and William D. Ray. (1825 Achilles[1], 1831 Nelson[2], Narcissa M.[3])

The 1930 Census for Los Angeles County, California, listed Nannie Gray with the following household on April 5, 1930:

Michigan, Births and Christenings Index, 1867-1911, available from Ancestry.com, listed the birth of Blanche Robbins, daughter of John Y. and Sarah J. Robbins, on September 27, 1874, in Vernon, Isabella County, Michigan:

"Name: Blanche Robbins
Gender: Female
Birth Place: Vernon, Isabella, Michigan
Birth Date: 27 Sep 1874
Father's name: John Y Robbins

Ray, age 28, and Blanch Mentzer, age 19, on November 23, 1889, in Mound City, Linn County, Kansas. As set forth below, the wife of George Nelson Ray was Blanche H. (Robbins) Ray and she was born in 1874 and the 1900 Census for Shawnee County, Kansas, set forth below, indicates they were married in about 1895. The result is that this Linn County, Kansas, marriage record was for a second George N. Ray. This is confirmed by (1) the 1900 Census for Linn County, Kansas, which listed George E. Ray, age 38 and born in Kansas, and wife Blanche J. Ray, age 36 and born in Iowa, and son George E. Ray, born in September 1899 in Kansas, and (2) the death record of George Eugene Ray dated September 21, 1959, in Los Angeles County, California, which listed his parents as ____ Ray and ____ Mentzer and his birth on September 1, 1899, in Kansas.
